Notice of Rights under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) for Housing Applicants

To All Applicants for HPD or HDC Marketed Units:

The federal Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.<sup>[1]</sup> This notice explains your rights under VAWA and the responsibilities of HPD and HDC, collectively known as “the Agencies”, and any marketing agents or other owner representatives engaged in your application process for HPD/HDC marketed housing units.

Protections for Applicants

Housing units marketed via NYC Housing Connect may be funded by a number of federal, state or local financing programs. If you otherwise qualify for admission, you cannot be denied admission on the basis of or as a direct result of the fact that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Additionally, applicants cannot be denied based on adverse factors that are a direct result of the fact that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Applicants who are domestic violence survivors may invoke their VAWA rights and appeal a rejection to housing if they wish to claim that the reason given for rejection is a direct consequence of their experience with domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. Such reasons may include, but are not limited to, poor credit, failure to pay rent, poor rental history and/or a criminal record. When submitting such a claim, applicants may be asked to provide supporting documentation.

Instructions on your rights to appeal and the related time frame for submitting such an appeal are explained in your rejection letter if you are denied acceptance to an HPD or HDC marketed unit. Should you need assistance in acquiring additional documents, you may contact one of New York City’s Family Justice Centers, and inform them that you were referred by HPD or HDC for help documenting your status as a victim of domestic violence:

Confidentiality

The Agencies and all marketing agents/owner representatives must keep confidential any information you provide, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

However, they may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to release the information on a time limited basis.
- A law requires the Agencies or marketing agent/owner to release the information.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.
